

The Adventures of Recycling Ben

PRESENTED BY

Crouching Tigers

This is the story of Recycling Ben.
He helps kids like you,
whenever you need a friend.

Recycling Ben

Sometimes those around us wake up with a frown.
No matter the reason,
they can't help but
bring us down.

They may make fun of you,
or call you something mean.
But that is when you need
someone that to others
cannot be seen.

Recycling Ben is an imaginary friend who will always be by your side. He can turn a frown upside down and he's always along for the ride.

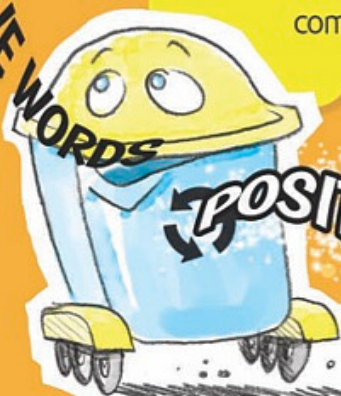

"Your shoes are ugly"
a kid may say to you.
You can cry, you can tattle...

NEGATIVE WORDS

OR you can try something completely new.

POSITIVE WORDS

No matter what a
frowning friend may say,
just place your hand on your side and put those mean words away.

"My shoes are awesome!"
the recycled words come
out. See, you did it!
There was never a reason to doubt.

But it isn't just words that Recycling Ben likes to turn.
It's thoughts and feelings,
you will begin to learn.

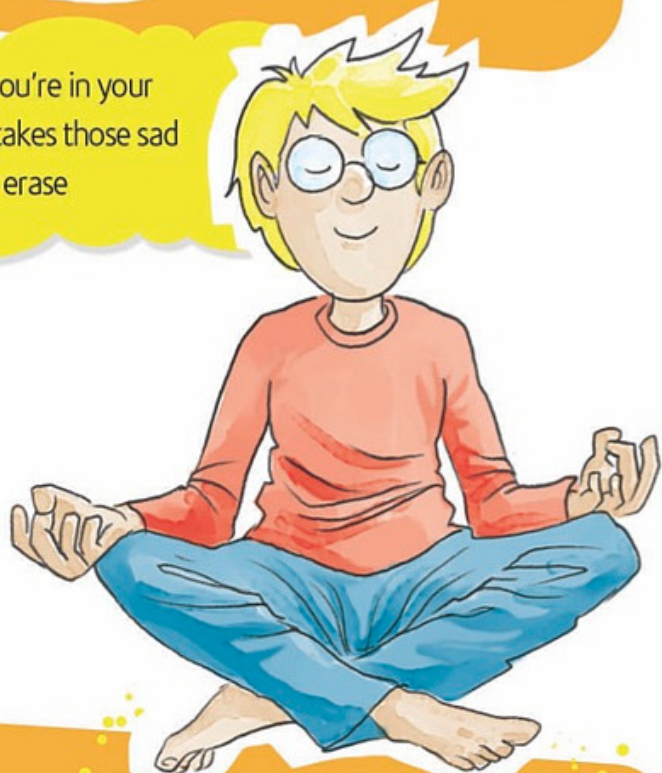

We all think sad thoughts
from time to time.
But there is no reason for them to stay in your mind!

Close your eyes and pretend you're in your favorite space. Recycling Ben takes those sad thoughts and slowly begins to erase

Replace those negative thoughts with positive ones and feel happiness
right away. Leave it to our good friend, Recycling Ben! Ready to save the day!
